FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Crystal Springs Resort, Hamburg, NJ

October 18, 2024

Golfzon Leadbetter Academy at Crystal Springs is thrilled to announce that John Pak, a long-time Leadbetter student and standout talent, has earned his PGA TOUR card for the 2025 season. Pak's achievement is the result of years of dedication, hard work, and the expert guidance he has received from his coach, Sean Hogan, Golfzon Leadbetter Master Instructor and Global Director of Instruction.

Pak, 25, originally from Scotch Plains, NJ, first started his game improvement program with the Sean Hogan and Golfzon Leadbetter Academy at Crystal Springs during his teenage years. Since then, he has continued to hone his game under Hogan's tutelage, developing a consistently sharp, simple swing that has proven highly effective throughout his collegiate and professional career. During his time at Florida State University, Pak earned numerous accolades, including the prestigious Jack Nicklaus Award, Ben Hogan Award, and Fred Haskins Award, solidifying his status as one of the top players in NCAA Division I golf.

In addition to his regular training, Pak recently took time to inspire the next generation of golfers by making an appearance at the Golfzon Leadbetter Academy's Elite Junior Golf Camp at Crystal Springs. He briefly spoke to the young players, offering advice and motivation on their own golf journeys.

Pak's rise to the PGA TOUR was solidified after a remarkable season on the Korn Ferry Tour, where he finished in the top 30 on the Points List. His victory at the Compliance Solutions Championship, along with two top-15 finishes in the final three events, secured his PGA TOUR card for the 2025 season.

Pak's success is a testament to his perseverance and the strategic coaching he received at the Golfzon Leadbetter Academy. "John has worked tirelessly on all aspects of his game, and his commitment has paid off," said Sean Hogan. "We are incredibly proud of his achievements and look forward to seeing him excel on the PGA TOUR."
